TAKEN FROM POLITICS

Has Been the Appointment of Rural Delivery Carriers.

THE EXAMINATION IS SIMPLE

They Are To Be Nominated by Patrons of The Proposed Routes And The Number Will Not Be Limited.

A special from Washington contains information that will interest a great many people in Coshocton county, since it deals with an order governing the appointment of rural free delivery mail carriers. It follows:
"Regulations governing the appointment of carriers in the rural free delivery service have been approved by Postmaster General Smith and the civil service commission. They are issued under the order promulgated by President Roosevelt classifying rural free delivery, and they will become effective February 1.

"Appointments of rural carriers are removed from politics and the examinations to be prescribed under the new rules will be of the simplest character. The carriers will be nominated by the patrons on the proposed routes, and the number of nominations will not be limited. Anyone living on a route may recommend a candidate for consideration, and the selection of carriers will be made by a central examining board, to be composed of postal officials, whose acts shall be subject to the approval of the civil service commission. The regulations approved are the result of a conference between members of the civil service commission, Postmaster General Smith and General Superintendent Machin.

"After February 1, when the regulation go into effect, all proposals for the establishment of rural free delivery must be submitted on blanks provided by the postoffice department.
The special agent who reports on a service will examine the applicants nominated by the petitioners and any others who may apply. The examination will be simple and practical, only sufficient to test the applicant's ability to read and write and to properly fill out money orders. Only those living on or in the immediate vicinity of a proposed route will be examined, and only those who can furnish the necessary equipment will be appointed.
These qualifications will first be determined by the special agent and afterward considered by the central examining board. The regulations conclude as follows:

"Qualifications religious affiliations of applicants can not be considered, nor will political endorsements be received or entertained. Persons under 17 or more than 55 years of age will not be examined. The age limit does not apply to honorably discharged soldiers of the Civil or Spanish wars."

EXPRESS COMPANY IN CHARGE

Of Baggage on The Wheeling & Lake Erie New Year's Day.

The Washburn is gradually but surely tightening its grip on the Wheeling and plans in operation on the system west are being inaugurated and carried out. The latest deals with baggage men who will after the first of the year cease to be in the employ of the railroad, but because they are express messengers as well will become employees of the Pacific Express company. The man in charge will be responsible to the one company.

THE BIG WASHOUT

On The Wheeling Near Chestnut Street is Being Filled.

The washout on the Wheeling near Chestnut street where two men lost their lives in August of 1900 is being filled with slag. The company first built a track around the big hole in the roadbed and later erected a trestle that has done duty since that time. It is now the purpose of the company to fill the hole and make it as substantial as any part of the road.

DO BUSINESS OR QUIT

Ultimatum Has Been Delivered to Saltsburg Glass Company.

COMMITTEE GONE TO PITTSBURG

Where the Contract Will Be Closed or Negotiations Cut off—Other Good Things to Take Its Place.

Do business or quit.
That is the ultimatum of the Coshocton board of trade to the Saltsburg Glass company, and Charles F.
Gosser, A. S. Caton and T. L. Montgomery have gone to Pittsburg to deliver it in person to President Mc-Quade and Treasurer Greer.

This does not mean that Coshocton will suffer in the slightest if the company decides to quit, for the board of trade has other factories to take its place and the contract with the people will be carried out to the letter.

Readers of THE AGE will remember that General Manager Rodelheim has been here a number of times and President McQuade and Treasurer Greer, who are heavily interested in the Saltsburg factory, have looked over the ground. They were pleased, at least they said so, and after their last visit notified Secretary Boyd that the contract had been signed. They were to have been here several weeks ago to wind up the matter, but other business interests kept them away.

Saturday at noon Mr. Rodelheim came, bringing with him the contract.
He explained to the board that certain changes had been made before the officers affixed their signatures.
The board found that these were small matters that could easily be adjusted with the possible exception of one clause. Mr. Rodelheim agreed with the board on this, out said he had no power to change the document. The questions were discussed at length, and Mr. Rodelheim agreed with the board.

It was decided to close up the deal without delay and the members of the committee were empowered to do business with the company or call off all negotiations. They have gone to Pittsburg and when they return the deal will be closed or there will be no deal.

The board is in correspondence with the implement manufacturing company and its officers are arming themselves with information for the annual meeting when it will be decided whether they will move to Coshocton.
The prospect is brighter than ever.

NEW YEAR'S SHOOT.

Greater Coshocton Gun Club is Preparing For a Great Day.

The amateur championship of Coshocton county will be the prize for which members of the Greater Coshocton Gun club and their friends will shoot New Year's day. The targets will be live birds, and an exciting time is anticipated. The club announces that the championship must be defended which means that when a member of the club thinks he can win it the champion must shoot against him or forfeit the title. Burns & Gosser gave the handsome medal.

JUDY WEST'S COMMANDER

Took His Life on Shipboard in The Philippines While Insane.

Judy West, who served with distinction as a scout in the Philippines, was surprised to read last week that his old commander, Lieutenant Russell, had shot himself on board the transport Law on while insane. He was a native of Beverly, W. Va.
Mr. West was deeply grieved to hear of the happening as he had great affection for the young officer, and during the 11 months he was under his command learned to regard him in the way that only comes to men whose lives are in constant danger.

BURIED AT DENNISON.

James McDevitt's Relatives Were Tardy, But Finally Responded.

James McDevitt, the Coshocton, sewing machine agent who was found dead in Dennison a week ago, was buried in the Catholic cemetery in that place today. When he died his brother in Philadelphia was notified by the coroner, but he was slow in answering and the body was placed in the public vault. At length the brother derived he was in position to see that Mc-Devitt was given Christian burial and the funeral took place today.

lett Building.

Western Union have rented to the gas company the space in their office

LARGE AUDIENCE

Attended Gospel Services at the Baptist Church Sunday.

The gospel services being held at the Baptist church attracted large audiences Sunday. Rev. Mr. Carmel preached strong sermons and the music was a feature. The gentleman will preach every night this week. He is convincing, has a pleasant manner and his sermons are enjoyed.

Rev. Dr. Foster preached a timely sermon on the "Passing of the Old Year" at the Walnut M. P. church Sunday morning. The service in the evening by the college students who are at home for vacation was interesting and enjoyed by a large audience. Those who took part in the exercises were Ernest Dillin, Frank Selby, Miss Olga Schaeffer, Miss Helen Baker, Mr. Wright and Professor Bryant.

Rev. Mr. Weber preached to a large congregation in the opera house Sunday morning. It was the children's day, and his sermon dealt with their connection with the church.
"Weighed in the Balance," was the subject of an excellent sermon delivered by Rev. Mr. Sever at the Christian church. It was a New Year's theme.

HEALTH OFFICER'S ORDER

Convinced the Careless Woman That He Was In Earnest.

Health Officer Foster has trouble with persons who break the diphtheria quarantine, and he is at times compelled to resort to severe measures.

This morning he learned that a woman had sent her child to a house under quarantine, and he called on her with the request that she refrain from repeating the offense. She became very angry with what she seemed to think was official interference with her private affairs, but when shown it was for the good of the community and she would be placed under arrest if the offense was repeated she viewed the matter in different light. The health officer is keeping close watch on the family but does not believe they will be so foolish as to recklessly expose themselves to the disease again.

UNSATISFACTORY

As the Change in Ratio of Exchange.

Doings in Philippines.

Manila, Dec. 30.—The change in the ratio of exchange on the Mexican dollar to $2.10 Mexican silver for one American gold dollar, which was announced Dec. 26, is causing much dissatisfaction here. It is unsettling what were considered to have been fixed prices.

General Chaffee, when questioned in an interview concerning the alleged friction between the civil and military authorities in the Philippine archipelago, said that absolutely no such friction existed and that perfect harmony prevailed between the two authorities. General Chaffee said that he and the members of the commission had at times differed in their views, but that these differences were purely personal opinion. He said that the relations with Governor Taft and Acting Governor Wright and the other commissioners were both official and socially extremely pleasant, and that he thought that the published statement of friction between the civil and military authorities here must have resulted from a misunderstanding of the facts of the case. In an interview Governor Wright corroborated the statement of General Chaffee.

CHINESE OFFICIALS

Attend a Dinner by Minister Conger.

Smashing All Precedents.

Peking, Dec. 30.—Considerable sensation has been caused in Chinese official circles by a dinner given at his residence by United States Minister Conger, and which was attended by the leading officials of the Chinese foreign office. Among the officials present were Ma Tung, a former boxer leader, and Wang Wen Shao, one of the Chinese plenipotentiaries. The dinner was attended by several American ladies. It was formerly the custom for prominent Chinese officials never to enter a foreign legation except upon the most formal occasions, while the meeting of foreign ladies socially would have been considered as degrading as would the associating with Chinese women upon the same footing. This event is significant of the progressive tendency of today.

HEAVY RAINS

Causing Streams to Leave Banks.

Damage to Property.

Knoxville, Dec. 30.—Excessive rains for the past 48 hours throughout east Tennessee threaten to do more damage to property than the disastrous flood of 1st May, when nine lives were lost and fully $2,000,000 damage done to railroad and farming property. The Southern railway has annulled all trains between this city and Ash Grove, N. C., owing to water-covered and perhaps badly washed tracks between Newport and Runkin. The Tennessee river is nearing the 30-foot mark at this point, with indications that it will reach 40 feet and do heavy damage.

High Water.

Lancaster, Pa., Dec. 30.—A heavy rain has been continuous in this section. All the streams in the county are swollen greatly beyond their volume, and the Conestoga creek has overflowed its banks to an extent unknown in recent years. The bridge crossing this stream at Englewood is threatened with destruction, and traffic on the Lancaster-Strasburg railway, of which the bridge is a part, has been suspended. The bridge has begun to move, and it is believed will be washed away. It was erected 75 years ago.

Twenty Japs Lost.

Vancouver, B. C., Dec. 30.—Twenty Japanese are missing from Stevenson and are supposed to have been killed or drowned in the destruction of a Japanese boarding house between Stevenson and Point Roberts on Thursday morning. The boarding house stood on piles and not a vestige of the structure now remains. The place was two miles from Stevenson and it was impossible to reach it during the storm.

Swell of the Ohio.

Pittsburg, Dec. 30.—Heavy rains for 36 hours here and at all headwater points on the river has produced a condition which will result in what may be called a flood stage in the Ohio river. Timely warnings by the weather bureau will be the means of saving much property and only temporary inconvenience is expected by interests along the river front.

WITH RARE JEWELS

A Trusted Valet Said to Have

Quietly Disappeared.

SLEUTHS NOW HOT ON THE TRAIL.

Precious Stones Were Valued at Fifty

Thousand Dollars and the Property of a New York Couple—Robbers Relive Two Lone Women of a Large Sum—Crimes of a Day.

New York, Dec. 30.—Precious stones valued at $50,000 were stolen from Mr. and Mrs. Paul G. Thebaud of Madison avenue, this city. The report was corroborated by Mr. The-baud himself at headquarters, where, in company with a member of the firm from whom most of the jewelry had been purchased, he gave to the police a partial list of the jewels taken. The valuables consisted in part of one pear-shaped diamond, said by Mr. Thebaud to be worth $20,000; one pearl, weighing 44 grains, said to be worth $15,000; and 290 small ornaments, making up a total of about $50,000. The robbery is said by the police, and also by Mr. Thebaud, to have been the work of a newly engaged valet, who had been employed by Mr. Thebaud about two weeks. The valet is missing, and the butler who recommended him is under constant police surveillance.

Mr. and Mrs. Thebaud went to White Plains as the guests of Mr. and Mrs.

Howard Willets. The valet accompanied them. The Willets, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Thebaud and several other guests, went to church. Soon after the return Mrs. Thebaud discovered that her diamond and pearl were gone, but found that little else had been taken. Mr. Thebaud at once communicated by telephone with the housekeeper of the residence in this city, and it was discovered that the other valuables had also been stolen.

The valet was last seen when he took one of Howard Willets' rigs and drove to the railroad station in White Plains. Three hours later the rig was found at the station, abandoned. It is supposed that the valet, whose name is Kern, left town on an outgoing train soon after he drove to the station. The New York police communicated with the police of the principal cities where Kern would be apposed to go.

Receiver Found.

Salt Lake City, Dec. 30.—With the finding of a 35-caliber revolver not far from the scene of the crime, the police of this city believe they have the last element necessary to clear up the mystery of James P. Hays' murder on the night of Dec. 16. The weapon has been traced by the police to the second-hand store where it was bought a short time before the murder, according to the police, by a man answering the description of Peter Mortenson, the central figure in the case being the charge of having committed the crime. Mortenson positively denies all knowledge of the affair. No part of the $2,000 of which young Hays was robbed on the night he was killed has ever been found.

Women Robbed.

Washington, Ga., Dec. 30.—The Misses Battle, two elderly maidens living at Barnett Junction, on the Washington branch of the Georgia railroad, were robbed of $6,000 in gold. When the robbers entered the house the women, hearing a noise, investigated and lighted a lamp. The robbers dashed a bucket of cold water on the one holding the lamp and overawed them. An alarm was raised and when help arrived the robbers had died, after rifling a trunk containing the amount mentioned. The ladies claim to have recognized one of the robbers

Big Store Burned.

Victoria, B. C., Dec. 30.—Spencer's

ArCADE, Victoria's big department store, was gutted by fire and flooded with water. The loss is estimated at $250,000 and the insurance is about $125,000. The fire was caused by a crossed wire in the carpet department.

Calvary Sermon

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—While this discourse of Dr. Calvary rebukes arrogance, it encourages humanity and shows how the evening of life may be brightened. The text is 1 Kings xx, 11, "Let not him that is proud of his strength boast himself as he that putteth it off."

Harness is the obsolete word for armor.

It means harness for the man, not harness for the horse; harness for battle, not harness for the plow. The ancient armor consisted of helmet for the head, breast-plate and shield for the heart, greaves for the feet. The text makes a comparison between a man enlisting for some war and a veteran returning, the one putting on the armor and the other putting it off.

Benhadad, the king of Syria, thought he could easily overcome the king of Israel. Indeed, the Syrian was so sure of the victory that he spread an anhelum banquet. With thirty-two kings he was celebrating what they were going to do. There were in all thirty-three kings at the banquet, and their condition is described in the Bible not as convivial or stimulated exultation, but drunk. Their glided and lowered pavilions were surrounded by high mottled horses, neighing and champing, and hitched to chariots such as kings rode in. Benhadad sends officers over to the king of Israel demanding the surrender of the city, saying,

"Thou shalt deliver me thy silver and thy gold and thy wives and thy children," and afterward sends other officers, saying that the palace of the king will be searched and everything Benhadad wants he will take without asking. Then the king of Israel called a council of war, and word is sent back to Benhadad that his unreasonable demand will be resisted.

Then Benhadad sends another message to the king of Israel, a message full of arrogance and bravado, practically saying: "We will destroy you utterly. I will grind Samaria into the dust, but there will not be dust enough to make a handful for each one of my troops." Then the king of Israel replied to Benhadad, practically saying: "Let me see you do what you say. You boast bravely, but you might better have postponed your boast until after the battle instead of spreading it before the battle. You huzza too soon. Let not him that girdeth on his harness boast himself as he that putt-eth it off."

An avenger of courage and richesness ness, the Israelitish army came down on Benhadad and his host. It was a hand to hand fight, each Israelite hewing down a Syrian. Benhadad, on horseback, gets away with some of the cavalry, but is only saved for a worse defeat, in which 100,000 Syrian infantry were slaughtered in one day. Now we see the sarcasm and the epigrammatic power of the message of his text sent by the king of Israel to Benhadad, "Let not him that girdeth on

eth it off."

Pride Goeth Before a Fall.

All up and down history we see such too early boasting. Soit, the marshal of France, was so certain that he would conquer that he had a proclamation printed announcing himself king of Portugal at 4 o'clock that afternoon, but before that hour he fled in ignominious defeat, and Wellington of the conquering host sat down at 4 o'clock at the very banquet the marshal of France had ordered for himself. Charles V. invaded France and was so sure of conquest that he requested Paul Jovius, the historian, to gather together a large amount of paper on which to write the story of his many victories, but disease and famine seized upon his troops, and he retreated in dismay. So Benhadad's behavior has been copied in all ages of the world. It will be my object, among other lessons, to show that he who puts off the armor, having finished the battle, is more to be congratulated than he who begins.

First, I find encouragement in this subject for the aged who have cut through the work and struggle of earthly life. My venerable friends, if you had at twenty-five years of age full appreciation of what you would have to go through in the thirties and the forties and the fifties of your lifetime you would have been appalled.

Fortunately the bereavements, the temptations, the persecutions, the hardships, were cut from your sight. With more or less fortitude you passed through the crises of pain and sadness and disappointment and fatigue and still live to recount the divine help that sustained you.

At twenty or thirty years of your age at the top of the drum you put on the harness. Now, at sixty or seventy or eighty, you are peacefully putting it off. If you would not want to try the battle of life again, so many of you are

WERE MARRIED IN OCTOBER

But These People Could Not Agree Although They Were Old Enough to Know Better—The Charge.

Mrs. Lydia J. Shanklin wants a divorce from her husband, Charles Shanklin. Mrs. Shanklin is 54 years old and the man she accuses of abusing her is 55.

Mrs. Shanklin was Mrs. Morris, a widow living at Cooperport, when she was wooed and won by Charles Shanklin, a substantial farmer residing in Perry township. They came to Coshocton, and one pretty day last October they were married.

The wife's petition, filed after less than three months of married life, charges that within a few weeks after the ceremony her husband displayed a violent temper and treated her to a cruel and brutal manner. This she endured for a time, she says, but at length she left him and went to her former home. The husband is well provided with this world's goods, and an injunction has been granted restraining him from disposing of his property. He came from Perry 10 years ago.

No Consolidation.

Terre Haute, Ind., Dec. 30.—W. P. Hams, president of the American Trotting association, denies a report that there will be a consolidation of the American and National trotting associations. He says the only foundation for such a report is that committees from the two associations will meet Jan. 7 at New York to discuss joint amendments to rules, so that they may be as nearly uniform as possible. The American association will hold its congress in May and the National in June.

WRAPS

We think there is a good deal of Wrap trade yet to be supplied. Our conviction of this has been so strong that we last week visited Cleveland and secured a large stock of Wraps at prices that were a real surprise to ourselves. Most everyone is acquainted with the fact that this has been a great Wrap season. Factories have been so worked that it took from three to six weeks to get goods after they were ordered. This condition lasted until December 1. The factories kept making garments by the hundred, thinking the demand would last until January. The result has been an accumulation of garments during the last thirty days in hands of manufacturers. Of course all these garments have been made during December, and are the very latest in every way. We have taken advantage of this condition in the market, and this morning put on sale about 300, 285 by actual count, Ladies', Misses and Children's Wraps at 50c on the dollar. We have often made a wrap sale at 50c on the dollar, but have never sold such a fresh, up-to-date lot of garments as these. They are just off the machines, and not a chestnut in the line. If you have been able to get along until now without buying your wrap, this is a great opportunity for you. You can have any style you want, 27 in. three-fourths length or full length. All shades, from light tans to black. We take stock last week in January. We do not expect to invoice any of these garments. If you have been waiting for your wrap, now is your opportunity. COME IN AT ONCE.

FURS

About 200 Fine Scarfs just opened at 50c on the dollar. Here's an opportunity to make your dollars do double duty. The line of Furs include all the staple and fancy goods on the market, such as Martens, Stone Martens, Mink, Sable, Fox, Opossum, Beaver, Electric Seal, Near Seal, Etc. This week will make a big impression on the stock, both Wraps and Furs. Do not wait if you are interested at all, but give this immediate attention. Your servants,
